DR. JOHN BULL'S
Concentrated Extract of

BUCHU

COMBINED WITH

Bromide of Potassium.

Purchase a Bottle and carefully read directions.

BUCHU IS A STIMULANT, and of itself may fail to effect a cure, but Buchu, when scientifically combined with Bromide of Potassium, and other ingredients, produces a sedative effect, and causes a healthy action, thus increasing the power of the system, and allowing the system to get rid of the morbid elements, thus preventing decomposition and decay, thus giving nourishment, and building up the system.

My Buchu is good for all diseases arising from excesses such as Weakness, and Pain in the Back and Legs, Trembling in the legs, the Heart, Weak Nerves, Palpitation, Contention, Dryness of the Skin, Scrofula, and all kinds of skin diseases, Ulcers, and Tumors.

If your system is affected by any of the above symptoms and diseases, relief is at hand. Get a bottle of my Buchu and Bromide of Potassium at once and you may rely on being cured.

I know just what I say. My record as a Compounder of Medicine is second to no man in the South-west.

Twenty-five or thirty years ago, as my fellow-citizens know full well, found me to have had the prescription counter in the city in which I now dwell. I have cured more people of various diseases than all the physicians in Louisville put together. I am not an upstart of yesterday.

My Buchu is a success—against scrofula, and all kinds of skin diseases. One and another has tried, by copying after me here in Louisville, to compete with me, but have failed, after their efforts have been abandoned. And their efforts have been abandoned.

My Medicines are good and answer the purpose. It is the secret of my success. My reputation as a compounder of good, reliable medicines is fully established.

I believe my Buchu and Bromide of Potassium is the best article now in the market for the cure of all diseases of the urinary and locomotor organs, such as Scrofula, and Urethra, inflammation of the Pelvis of the Kidney, and all that class of diseases.

Buy a dollar bottle and be cured. Use as per directions in all cases.

Manufacturer and Vendor of the CELEBRATED

OR

CHILLS AND FEVER.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superior and more efficacious remedy for the cure of the above diseases, than any other medicine, and a permanent cure of Ague and Fever, of Chills and Fever, and of all other long standing diseases, and the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear his testimony to the truth of the assertion, that no cure what-so-ever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single bottle has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the cure has been effected, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order, should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S PLEASANT FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

ESTABLISHED FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

BULL'S WORM DESTROYER.

Extract of a Letter from Georgia.

VILLANOVA, WALKER COUNTY, Ga.,

June 29, 1866.

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: I have recently given your Worm Destroyer a trial, and have found it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am a doctor, and have a large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind.

I am, Sir, respectfully,

J. J. P. CLEMENT, M. D.

P. S.—So unqualified and numerous are the testimonials in favor of my Worm Destroyer, that no newspaper space is entirely too small to tell its merits.

It is an infallible remedy for Worms. Try it and be convinced. See my journal for a more full description.

JOHN BULL.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA.

St. Louis, April 20.

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficacy of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded about two years ago, was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not been up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need medicine to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in any thing else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

CARR. C. P. JOHNSON.

P. S.—Mr. Johnson was the son of a skillful surgeon. His mother recommended to her friends, and for many years used my Sarsaparilla with perfect success. In Scrofula and Fever-sore Mrs. Johnson states that the cure effected were almost miraculous. Read my Journal for extended information and advice in your case. My Journal contains certificates of eminent persons, ministers and medical men—men who are known here in this community for integrity and veracity. I have recently received a most remarkable certificate from an eminent gentleman of Louisville.

The Elements of Opposition to General Grant.
The Paducah Kentuckian, and other worthy democratic papers of this State, effect to depreciate the position taken by the Hickman Courier in favor of consolidating the elements of opposition to General Grant, and to this end holding the Democratic party in abeyance during the Presidential struggle of 1872. These papers ring the changes upon the "base abandonment of party," "surrender of eternal principles," etc., and yet withhold their offer no plan, which presents the shadow of success in the coming contest. At least three fifths of the voting citizens of the United States are opposed to the present Radical Republican party, and if these elements of opposition can be combined into solid fighting phalanx, Grant's overthrow is beyond the possibility of a doubt. Will these elements combine under the Democratic banner in sufficient strength to secure victory? We think they should, and our contemporaries continue to exhort them to do so, but the results of the various elections since the war gives us no such promise. It is wisdom in us therefore, through party zeal and party spirit, however commendable under ordinary circumstances, to forfeit every chance of success by failing to avail ourselves of these elements of opposition. The defeat of Grant and the deliverance of the country from another Radical Administration depend upon the possibility of perfecting a cordial union among these elements.

Do we sacrifice principle? Suppose the opponents of Grant unite in "a crusade against corruption in Office," would either a Democrat or Republican, who is honestly in favor of Reform, sacrifice anything? Suppose we include "Amnesty to the South," what prevents Democrats and conservative Republicans serving with co-operating zeal and enthusiasm? Include the Free Trade movement, and the concurrent and harmonious action of all is secured. These, not to mention more, make up a load, that the present Administration can not shoulder through the next campaign. There is nothing needed but a liberal, conciliatory spirit to bring all the opponents of General Grant together on a satisfactory platform, and make the next Presidential election the opening of a new and brighter era in our politics. Is there any harm to forego party zeal, when a combination so fruitful of blessings to the country is the promise?

Another point worthy of consideration is that, if we had the power to elect a President, he would be perfectly powerless, because of the overwhelming majorities in both Houses of Congress against him. He would be hampered and chained precisely as was Mr. Johnson, and therefore incapable of affording any practical relief to the country. Upon the contrary, the election of a Conservative, would most certainly divide the present Republican representation both in the Senate and House, and perhaps give us at once a working power. Is this policy better than the re-election of Grant? If so, we are right, and our contemporaries wrong; if not, vice versa.

OUR REPRESENTATIVE.—Our Representative A. S. Arnold, was in Hickman Tuesday, looking as rubicund and jovial as ever. He visited Fulton for the purpose of acquainting himself with any local legislation desired by this county, and expresses an earnest desire to aid in everything possible. We are glad to find him warmly in favor of the enterprise of building a levee from Hickman to Tiptonville, and promises to use his utmost influence to secure all needful legislation to advance the project. In this movement Mr. Arnold will secure the hearty endorsement of our people.

Col. Geo. W. Silvertooth.—We understand that the veteran Democrat Col. Geo. W. Silvertooth, of Hickman county, will be a candidate for clerk of the Kentucky State Senate, this winter. No man in Kentucky has fought more hard battles for the Democratic party, than the "old wheel horse" whose name heads this paragraph, and in our opinion there is not in the broad land a truer or stancher democrat. If he has "erred as a politician," it has been because of a perhaps, too radically zealous devotion to the party. He has fought and won hundreds of battles for Democracy, but never one against it. We have had occasion to differ with him at times, and shall most likely do so in the future on many points, but would be sincerely glad if the Kentucky Senate should choose him for its chief clerk. His long experience as a member of both Houses admirably qualify him for the position, and his life labor as an active working Democrat entitle him to this favor from the party. He fought for the party before some of our present Senators were born, and yet in his old age keeps up an unremitting fire from the same side.

A Clergyman of Paducah, says an exchange, has been preaching to show the people of that city that there ought to be some contrast apparent between the godly and ungodly. This seems very reasonable, but will doubtless astonish some of the Paducah good people as much as it seems to have the editor who chronicles the fact.

The Grand Duke Alexis.
The Grand Duke Alexis, the Russian Prince has arrived in America and been received in New York. Ten thousand soldiers to say nothing of the thousands of citizens turned out to welcome him. From the newspaper accounts, no man on earth ever received such an ovation before from New Yorkers. For miles the streets were decorated with American and Russian flags, which with the immense concourse, booming of cannon, etc., gave the day a magnificent power. Gen. Jno. A. Dix delivered an address of welcome as follows:

"Your Royal Highness:—The citizens of New York are glad to welcome you to the United States. We are glad to welcome one who represents his Imperial Highness, the Czar of Russia. We are glad to welcome a representative of the power for which we have so much respect, kind feeling and confidence. We are not so old as European nations, as our civilization dates back but one hundred years, but among our institutions and customs you will find many things to admire and carry back to your own country. We are glad that you are here to carry back to his Imperial Highness, your father, the well wishes of this Government. Again, I say, we welcome you to our shores."

THE GRAND DUKE REPLIES:
"Gen. Dix, Ladies and Gentlemen:—I present my warmest thanks for the kind feelings to which on behalf of the people of this great city you have given expression. I feel that the Democratic character is greatly appreciated in Russia, but when I return to New York I shall have great pleasure in accepting the kind hospitality which has been generously extended to me. I thank you heartily."

If Alexis decides to visit Hickman, he will arrive about the first of January, and it is suggested that the Committee of Arrangements provide a free lunch on the European plan, i. e. order what you want and pay for what you get. This is the way Americans are received in Russia.

Indiana Ku-Klux.
The State of Indiana, says the Louisville Star, has more gross immorality, more cases of crimes against persons and property, more mob violence and outrage—more brutal violence and cowardly assassinations, and more horse stealing than any two Southern States together. The Indiana papers which howl for the suppression of lawlessness in the South are filled with cases of gross enormity. The murder of the Park family and the lynchings in Owen county are the latest instances. Of the Owen county case on Indiana paper says:

On Friday night last forty or fifty citizens, without any disguise, organized and proceeded to the residence of six men, two named Brown, two Anderson, and two Green. These men had all been guilty of numerous crimes, and had all ways managed to evade the penalty of the law. They were taken from their homes to the woods, tied up and whirled nearly to death with whips. They were then notified that unless they left the county within twenty-four hours they would be hung.

The lynchings then proceeded to the residence of old man Anderson, father of the two Andersons lynched, and took him to the woods and hung him up to a tree, in order to extort a confession from him of his own guilt and that of the party lynched. He made full confession, and was then whipped and ordered to forthwith leave the county. All the parties left on Saturday, and if they return will certainly be hung.

A CONVENTION of the Governors of the New England and Northwestern States will be held at Detroit, the 24th inst., for the purpose of promoting the construction of a continuous water and steam navigation route from the Mississippi to the Atlantic Ocean. It is proposed to excavate a ship canal around the Falls of Niagara, and the route then proceeds by way of Lake Ontario, the river St. Lawrence, Lake Champlain and the Hudson River, to the harbor of New York. Congress is to be petitioned to make appropriations for this work, and to regulate the rates of toll and transportation.

GOVERNOR B. BRATZ BROWN, of Missouri, has written a letter announcing that he has become a temperance man. He says: "Realizing the sinister use that was being made of insinuation and innuendo about the ordinary courtesies of entertainment, and not feeling willing that our great State should be put to the defence in regard to the character of its executive, but rather that it should stand above suspicion and above even malignity, I determined some time since to vindicate this reputation by habits of total and entire abstinence."

KU-KLUX!
INDIANA MOB LAW.

MURDER OF THE PARK FAMILY.

A summary of the facts elicited in this case made a pretty strong showing against the parties, and by the time the final trial could be arranged, from indications developed, it would no doubt have been hard to have convinced any jury of their innocence. First, Johnson's confession, which of course would have required a corroborative fact—a full and complete knowledge that he, Taylor and Davis committed the murder, and circumstantial narrative of every particular connected with the horrible murder, first, before a Justice of the Peace, and afterwards before the Grand Jury. Second, the finding of the bloody ax in the exact place where he said it had been left, and the tracks of the three men all along the route he said they traveled upon leaving the house after the murder. Third, the finding of the coat of young Park in the house of Taylor, and the finding of the pocket book of Cyrus M. Park in a trunk at the house of Davis. Fourth, the straightforward story of the little grandson of Taylor, and the statement of Taylor's wife. Fifth, the finding of the bloody shirt at the house of Davis, and a bloody coat at the house of Taylor.

This Grand Jury failed to find an indictment on these facts. We learn that so confident was the Prosecuting Attorney that a true bill would be found that he had the indictments for murder in the first degree already drawn up.

When the grand jury announced to Judge Daubman yesterday evening that they were through their business and had ascertained that they had found no indictments against any of the parties charged with the murder of the Park family, and he adjourned them until the first Monday in December when they were to have met again for the purpose of investigating the murder.

The people were highly incensed in the evening after the announcement was publicly made that the Grand Jury had failed to indict the murderers. Omnipotent words dropped here and there from the disappointed citizens. The excitement grew. The people of Charlestown who had before long, and whose counsel had been for law and order against the suggestions of some persons who were in favor of immediate action before His Honor, Judge Lynch, became careless as to results, and finally concluded that for bearing in this case had ceased to be a virtue. Old men looked as they had not looked before. The fever grew in town and country, and between one and two o'clock this morning the sullen and determined tramp of not less than fifty men was heard upon the streets of that usually quiet town. All who heard it knew its import as onward it sounded toward the jail.

From a blacksmith a crowbar was taken which indicated the mob in its entrance to the jail. From prison walls George Johnson, Spire Taylor, and Charles Davis, all colored, were taken and indicted by a grand jury in the court of Judge Lynch for having committed one of the foulest murders that ever darkened the records of Clark county.

Tremblingly the accused murderers were borne along by the determined executioners of the lawless court. They were taken to Hammond's woods, about one-fourth of a mile from Charlestown on the New Washington road, and there expiated their crime by hanging by the neck till they were dead. The injunction "an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth," has been obeyed in this case. Three victims sleep beneath the soil of Indiana, dispatched by the murderers' hands into eternity, to say nothing of the two daughters still lingering, and three victims have paid the penalty. It is well, we suppose. It is possible, though not probable, that the parties who have paid the penalty were not guilty—not all of them—but the people when once aroused and united under the banner of Judge Lynch stop to ask but few questions. That the parties were guilty they should have suffered the penalty which they have received, is certain, but we would have preferred, for the fair name of our sister State, that it were done according to the law as laid down in the books and not that another crime should be added to the Criminal Calendar of Indiana, in order to bring the instruments of the recent tragedy to that justice which they deserved.

At daylight this morning the bodies of the three men were still hanging, cold and lifeless, a warning to like offenders against the law which is intended to protect the humblest citizen in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The men who composed this mob were disgraced and it will be hard, if desired, to identify them. The coroner left Jeffersonville this morning for the scene for the purpose of holding an inquest on the bodies.

A query suggests itself at the close of these lines. Have the Ku-Klux invaded the Northern States, or have the Northern people caught the fever from the South? How many Radical papers will head their account of this fearful tragedy? A Ku-Klux Outrage in Indiana?—Louisville Sun.

A Southern Sensation.
The Louisville Courier-Journal publishes a big sensation in the shape of a letter from Jackson, Mississippi, bearing date Nov. 14, 1871. The writer professes to have received "information of serious and influential organization," which appears to exist "throughout various Southern States, especially those bordering upon the Mississippi river."

The pick of this startling revelation is that this organization, strong in numbers and wealth, has for its object the "widening the South of the vicious, idle and worthless negroes who have congregated in the towns, villages and cities," by sending them into States North of the Ohio river. The Courier-Journal endorses the responsibility of its correspondent.

"All the philanthropy of the North has been bubbling up in sympathy with the distant African citizen, so gloriously invested with all American rights, and it is proposed to let them mingle more unreservedly with the 'men and brethren' of the Radical camp. A systematic organization will encourage their emigration and solicit everywhere subscriptions to support them on their way. A large sum of money for a few days after their arrival in Northern localities. It may be ultimately extended to sending them into States where they can settle lands, and acquire the rights of citizenship by five years' residence. Certainly, this is the rid of very many bad subjects, who moral and rob at all times, even if they refrain from murder. The leaders in this movement are law abiding citizens, who are not opposed to the law, but to the Ku-Klux organization. Such a plan is perfectly legal, and can not be opposed with propriety by any State or city. Some undoubtedly urge it on in a bitter spirit, denouncing it as a method of retaliation by using these black dogs of the South upon Radical communities. But the great ones are actuated, I trust, by nobler feelings, and consider that it may be the means of infusing some spirit of usefulness into now comparatively useless human beings. That they may be taken by the hand and instructed with thrift and industry. On the other hand it may be apprehended that, in larger fields, these ignorant and unbridled creatures may seek out the worst elements of society with which to band themselves, and to our eyes living by rapine and violence. That is the only argument which could be used against it in the North."

Martial Law to be Proclaimed in Georgia and Florida.
A special to the New York Evening Post says: The Ku-Klux Committee, who are in session examining the documents bearing upon the fate of the delinquent in the various sections, state that the sub-committee appointed to go to Georgia and Florida have not made any formal report yet, but they will recommend to the President that martial law be declared in both States. In Florida, especially, the committee hold a strong opinion of martial law, and a strong opinion of the committee say that the Ku-Klux organization will be exterminated in the South before many months. The President does not seem to take exactly the same view of the matter as do the members of the Investigating Committee. It was said at the White House, that from information received it was believed that within three months there would not be a Ku-Klux organization in the South anywhere, and that few troubles are now occurring in the South. However, that the President will follow the recommendation of the committee, and declare martial law in Florida and Georgia.

Grant Organizing the Empire.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. Nov. 21.—The Gazette to day makes an expose of a secret military organization called the Royal Blues, now being organized extensively throughout this State, under the instructions of Senator Clayton. The object of this organization is to build a new L. O. O. F. Hall and Lodge room. At the conclusion of the fair, a grand prize-drawing will take place. The scheme of this lottery is one of the most liberal ever offered to the public.

15,000 tickets will be issued at $1 each. Every ticket-holder will have one chance in 20 to draw any one of the 750 prizes. No attempt has been made to deceive the public. The prizes are of utility, and are absolutely worth what they are put down at.

The drawing will take place at the close of the fair. We guarantee that the distribution will be fairly conducted, and the interest of all the ticket holders protected as completely as it can be. To particularize all the prizes offered would take too much space; a large portion is therefore omitted. Persons from a distance will be supplied with schemes by addressing: To whom all applications for tickets in the drawing must be addressed.

Tickets only $1 each. Send for Scheme.

COUNTRY PRODUCE AND LIVE STOCK.

Also, Stock Pens kept for Drivers.

AFTER several years absence from the Grocery and Commission business in Hickman, we are again in the same line of business, and ask a renewal of their patronage so liberally bestowed upon us in years past. We feel ourselves fully responsible for our transactions and hope to give satisfaction in all of our dealings. The purchase of our goods in various wholesale markets for their very lowest cash value, hence we flatter ourselves that we can sell as low as the lowest. We especially call attention to our friends who buy to sell again to come and see us. We feel confident that we can make it to their interest to buy our small lots at least of us. We will make liberal advances in Produce in store to be shipped to our account, either in cash or goods. We will also, like with our friends for all kinds of Produce or live Stock.
